

Turning the Tides

The ancient Romans asked the question: Who will watch the watchers? In our own age as we face the scourge of global terrorism, we must also ask a further question: Who will turn the tides? Each of us can play a role in answering both of those questions. The manner in which we answer them, the forms of our responses, the challenge of maintaining our humanity in the face of inhumanity, will determine the quality of our lives, and the fate of future generations as well. This book is dedicated to believing in a future which we can reach, and to reaching a future in which we can believe through the storyline of an everyday American, Eugene, who happened to participate in some extraordinary circumstances. Culminating in the development of the SCOPE and CENTURION programs, this novel is a must read for all those interested in watching the watchers and turning the tides against the forces of chaos and destruction. Information is also included in the book on how to obtain a safety and security analysis based on the tenets of the SCOPE and CENTURION programs. About the Author: Eugene Elander won the Young Poets Award at 16 from the Dayton Poets Guild for his poem, The Vision. He was chosen Poet Laureate of Pownal, Vermont and was a member of the Poetry Society of New Hampshire until moving to Dahlonega, Georgia. His three new verses titled America the Beautiful: September 11, 2001 were widely acclaimed and read into the Congressional Record by U.S. Senator Chris Dodd. He has won numerous other poetry awards and has authored three volumes of poetry: The Right Click, The World Click, and Journeyings, all written from 2004 to 2006, in the U.S. and Sweden. In 2008, his novel The Goat of God was published by Signalman Publishing in a Kindle edition available via Amazon.com. Mr. Elander is an economist and college lecturer, and has been an agency executive director, emergency management consultant, investigator; and former animal control officer, deputy code enforcement and health officer for Farmington, New Hampshire. He and his wife Birgit, who co-authored The World Click, divide their time between Georgia and her homeland, Gotland, Sweden. Several other novels are in the works, including a sequel to The Goat of God, and the recently-completed semi-autobiographical Turning the Tides, which focuses on intelligence work and counter-terrorism. . The tragic events of September 11, 2001 are commemorated by the inclusion of those new verses for America the Beautiful as the novels foreword. For ten years, Mr. Elander published an award-winning weekly newspaper in New London, Connecticut. He has served on the Readers Panel for The Hartford Courant, and has authored articles, op-ed pieces, and columns as a freelance journalist. He is now associated on-line with OpEdNews.com and is the president of his own Elander Press.
