

First Day Of Term

Michael Williamson cracked his eyes open, blinking violently against the early morning sunlight that was creeping in around the edges of his red white and black Liverpool Football Club curtains at the window of his bedroom. He allowed his eyes to gaze to the left toward the clock radio alarm perched upon his bedside table, he blinked a couple of times before he could make out the red illuminated numbers on the clocks display. He cursed, he didn't want this day to start, he'd been dreading it since the start of the summer holidays, and now it was finally here - the first day of term! An amusing and entertaining short story from Jason Shaw, focusing on the emotions that will be familiar to so many regarding the first day of a new school term!
