

El Viajero/the Journeyer (Spanish Edition)

En su vejez, Marco Polo fue apodado Marco Millones porque en Venecia todo el mundo creia que la historia de sus viajes era una sarta de innumerables mentiras. Cuando estaba a punto de morir, un sacerdote le ofrecio la ultima oportunidad para reconocer sus embustes pero, segun dicen, Marco Polo contesto: No he contado ni la mitad de lo que vi y de lo que hice. Gary Jennings ha recreado esta otra mitad que Marco Polo no llego a contar. Desde los palacios y las callejas de la Venecia medieval hasta la suntuosa corte del kan Kubilai, desde la perfumada sensualidad de Oriente hasta los peligros e incomodidades que significaba recorrer la Ruta de la Seda, Marco Polo conoce a toda clase de gentes, sobrevive a infinitos peligros y, como es hombre de curiosidad insaciable, se convierte en un fantastico coleccionista de costumbres, lenguas y mujeres. Una narracion epica, grandiosa y amena de la vida del mayor de los aventureros que ha conocido la historia de la humanidad.
